

FTC Architects, PC was founded in the year 2000, the beginning of new millennial with the personal mission and with conviction to bring successful integrated design solutions for all clientele's building program needs that require simple, benign to programmatically complex design solutions. Lately, the firm has immersed itself with new emphasis on quality buildings especially in the field of semi-conductor plants and retail mixed use projects

Representative Clients

Francisco Choi, AIA, NCARB

Architect and Developer, Francisco Choi is the founder of FTC Architects, PC, a full-service architecture firm, and Tamiro Ventures, Ltd, a commercial real estate development company. Mr. Choi formerly worked with the late, I. M. Pei, Kohn Pederson Fox and in association with Cesar Pelli Architects and Michael Graves Architects. He left the limelight's of skyscraper projects that help changed the skyline of the world cities to pursue his own personal practice in New York and Texas. Since moving to Texas, Francisco Choi has provided architectural design services, project management, construction administration, feasibility design, and construction management services.

Representative Projects

Hangyang Engineering

LTD Material

Komico Technology

